40 Years Later: The Unfinished Business of the Civil Rights Movement

Wednesday, March 25, 2008

To Whom It May Concern:

April 4th marks the 40th anniversary of the assassination of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. To commemorate the American Civil Rights Movement, on Thursday, April 3, 2008, the Kappa Xi Lambda chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc (a.k.a. Wall Street Alphas) will hold 40 Years Later: The Unfinished Business of the Civil Rights Movement, a town hall-style discussion of the progress of the African-American community in the wake of this historic period in America's history. This program will take place at Brittany Rhodes Hall on the campus of New York University from 7:00 – 9:00pm. RSVP required.

It is the hope of the host that this moderated town hall will highlight the goals of the Civil Rights Movement, the progress and missed opportunities of the 40 years that followed, and an agenda for the future of the African-American community. The program's confirmed panelists are:

Dr. Patricia M. Carey, Assistant Provost for Scholarship Initiatives at New York University
Darwin M. Davis, President and CEO of the New York Urban League
William T. Rolack, HR and Diversity Executive and Author
April R. Silver, Social Entrepreneur, Activist, Writer; Founder of AKILA WORKSONGS, Inc.

As well as special guest:

Clara Donald, Personal friend of Dr. King and Organizer in Nashville, TN

Our panelists will provide a historic perspective of these goals and discuss steps for the future. These leaders will share their thoughts on this topic and the lessons learned along the way, for the benefit of the upcoming generations.
