17TH NATIONAL BLACK WRITERS CONFERENCE PROMISES TO BE THE BIGGEST LITERARY EVENT OF THE YEAR!

Speakers Include Percival Everett (of American Fiction fame), Edwidge Danticat, Michael Eric Dyson, Karen Hunter, Kevin Powell, Jacqueline Woodson, Marc Lamont Hill, and Other National Best-Selling, Award-Winning Black Writers!
IN-PERSON AT MEDGAR EVERS COLLEGE (BROOKLYN): MARCH 20 – 23, 2024

Brooklyn, NY --- The Center for Black Literature at Medgar Evers College of the City University of New York (CBL) announces that the 17th National Black Writers Conference (NBWC2024) will be held in person from Wednesday, March 20 to Saturday, March 23, 2024. This year's theme, All That We Carry: Where Do We Go From Here?, is based on the National Book Award-winning work by Tiya Miles, All That She Carried, The Journey of Ashley's Sack, A Black Family Keepsake (Penguin Random House, 2021). Miles is confirmed to participate in the Conference.

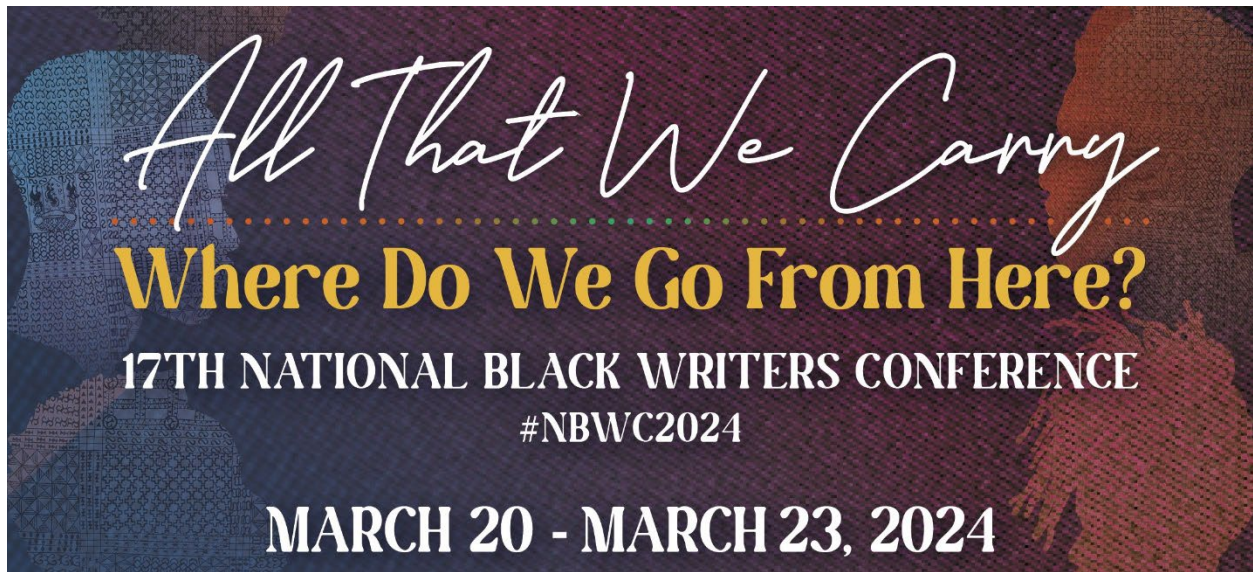

The roundtable discussions and other events of this four-day public gathering will explore many perspectives in literature. Conference Director, Dr. Brenda M. Greene shares that "we will focus on the value of history in literature, examine the impact of environmental and systemic racism, assess the impact of social media, and reflect on the need for peace and emotional healing."

Confirmed speakers include Percival Everett (of American Fiction Fame), Edwidge Danticat, Michael Eric Dyson, Karen Hunter, Kevin Powell, Jacqueline Woodson, Marc Lamont Hill, and other national best-selling authors and award-winning black writers (see list on page 5).

Established at Medgar Evers College in 1986 by revered novelist John Oliver Killens, the Conference is a public gathering of literature lovers from all walks of life in the United States, as well as from the Caribbean, Africa, Europe, and Australia. The Conference attracts some of today's most celebrated best-selling writers and scholars across several genres and generations, including recipients of the NAACP Image Award and the Hurston/Wright Legacy Award, Nobel Prize winners, Pulitzer Prize winners, MacArthur "Genius" Fellows, New York Times best-sellers; poet laureates; and other distinguished guests.

For registration, room locations, and more details, visit www.CenterForBlackLiterature.org. General Conference inquiries are directed to info@CenterForBlackLiterature.org or (718) 804-8883.
